

When and Why Kairos Should Be Your Consultant

Here at Kairos, we are excited when our clients experience significant and lasting success because of changes to their processes, workflows or organization. Let us help you today – where there is an issue, Kairos can help to deliver a solution:

Issue

Maintenance arm of global airliner needed to reduce cycle time to be more competitive without any loss in quality of work.

Deficient workflows and technical systems at renowned university created backlogged work and poor public perception.

A federal agency's real estate portfolio was widely dispersed and no longer affordable to maintain.

A specialty construction company was seeing numerous incidents of equipment damage and was unable to pinpoint the causes.

Solution

Kairos reviewed processes, created lean teams, and identified ROI opportunities. Quality was maintained and speed improved 26%.

Kairos analyzed workflows, prioritized functional gaps, automated document handling and increased productivity.

Kairos created a matrix to analyze 22 sites worldwide, proposed disposition, and saved the agency $23 million.

Kairos audited personnel and practices, identified root causes and established an employee accountability program that has stemmed the problem.

Connect with Kairos if you need to:

- Compress your project schedule
- Improve processes and performance
- Expand your business footprint
- Manage transition of responsibilities
- Capitalize quickly on unexpected opportunities
- Make international inroads
- Improve employee inroads
- Rein in payroll expenses
- Strengthen employee commitment
- Solve a wide range of business challenges or just one specific issue that might be unique to your organization.

Don't delay the solution.

For immediate assistance, contact Lynn Sutton at 312.212.4323

